

Olentangy The Condominium Book Club Calendar 2022-2023

October is the start of our 5th year as a community book club. On Wednesday, September 5th 2018, a small group met to discuss the possibility of forming a community book club that would be open to all residents. Since that time we have read many great books. Some books entertained us, other times we learned something new, but every month our shared interest in reading grew as did our club and our friendships. If you are interested in participating in our group, please join us in the Lodge on the first Wednesday of the month at 7p.m.* and just start reading!
