- V. Old Business
  - a. Tennis Court

- i. Blevins noted the Tennis courts struggles to get information from the vendor.
- b. Tree Trimming
  - i. Thomas noted the tree trimming is completed.
- c. 4730 MT New Fence
  - i. Thomas noted that new fences at 4730 MT are planned for June.
- d. Meter Box Install Underway
  - i. Thomas noted schedule on remaining boxes is in flux as the vendor is awaiting arrival of parts to finish the four remaining buildings.
- e. Bylaws
  - i. Recount of all the votes showed that we are not near passing any amendments and no future progress in voting is anticipated.

VI. New Business

- a. Sinkhole
  - i. Thomas noted a sinkhole on CH and PF will be addressed when concrete work begins.

VII. Resident’s Comment

- a. Resident asked about using the Lodge. It was encouraged. Resident only needs to request the use and it must be open to all residents.
- b. Resident asked about raccoons coming into her unit from other units. Concerned about the health and safety 632 Providence D and other units. Scott stated the board’s position is that the board doesn’t trap animals unless they are destroying interiors of the units. Neighbors can come up with methods to discourage their presents. Our budget of $1500 for trapping is already overspent $7000.
- c. Resident requested the purchase of free weights. Resident will research the proposal.
- d. Temperature too hot for concrete repair Next Monday scheduled on the repair.

Meeting adjourned at 7:50 PM

Business Approved Outside of Monthly Meeting (Not Discussed During Board Meeting)

Email vote on May 20th, to engage lawyer to determine options for addressing Tennis Court.
